REPORT OF THE FOREST FIRE WARDEN

Crises like the present test the quality and sincerity of everyone's patriotism and citizenship. The times make much unavoidable demands for universal cooperation in the many lines of essential regular and emergency public endeavor that the response given may well be assumed to be the real measure of one's love of country and his appreciation of the opportunities it offers. Ranking high in the list of public endeavor is the protection of our forests from fire. It calls for full and generous cooperation by each of us. Fire statistics indicate that better than 98 per cent of all fires in New Hampshire are man-caused. If human carelessness could be eliminated from the problem, the number of fires would drop to a mere minimum of less than 2 per cent of present figures and fire costs and losses would reduce in proportion. While this goal will not be achieved because of the perversity of human nature, the record can be vastly improved through individual discipline, alertness and cooperation.

Discipline calls for personal restraint from following unrestricted natural impulses to do as one pleases with regard to fire; alertness in cautioning others against imprudent and illegal burning and in promptly reporting fires to the local forest fire warden; cooperation in complying with laws, rules, and regulations governing the kindling and care of fires, smoking, safety of mechanical units using fire in and near woodlands and assisting the local warden in extinguishing such fires as may occur.

The possibilities of disastrous and expensive woods fires are constantly becoming more real. The hurricane felled an estimated one and one-half billion board feet of standing timber, much of which was never cleaned up. To this hazard has been and is being added extensive areas of slash from additional hundreds of millions cut to produce vitally needed wood for the war effort. With the stage so set, greater caution is increasingly necessary. It will pay substantial dividends in unburned forest areas and the saving of unnecessary fire expense.

The year 1943 was an extremely fortunate one because of favorable weather conditions. Many towns had no fires, some had minor fires while a few had expensive ones. The public controls the answer to the 1944 and future years' fire records. If the public is careful and cooperative the record will be good.

Your town warden is, perhaps, more perplexed and anxious during these war years than ever before because of increased forest fire hazards and diminishing supplies of available man-power. He looks to you to aid him. Will you? You can aid him most effectively by always securing the required permit before attempting to burn and by complying fully with permit requirements; by being patient when he advises of departmental restriction on permit burning or that he deems it unsafe to burn; and by giving him the needed assistance in extinguishing fires when he needs your help. To do so is to meet one real test of citizenship.

Gentlemen:

We have made an audit and examination of the accounts and records of the Allenstown School District, for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1943, in accordance with the request of the District, by a vote taken at the annual meeting. Exhibits as hereafter listed are included as part of this report.

- A — Comparative Balance Sheets.
- B — Summary of Receipts and Disbursements.
- B-1 — Summary of Activity in Treasurer's Account.
- C — Comparative Statement of Appropriations and Expenditures.
- D — Comparative Statement of Estimated and Actual Revenues.
- E — Reconciliation of Decrease in Surplus.
- F — Insurance on School Buildings.

The Net Surplus of the School District decreased by $39.40 during the fiscal year, as indicated by the Comparative Balance Sheet, Exhibit A. This decrease resulted from a Net Budget Deficit of a like amount as shown in Exhibit D.

A classified summary of Receipts and Disbursements for the year is included in Exhibit B. The Treasurer's cancelled checks were compared with entries in the cash book and with vouchers issued by the School Board and found to be in agreement therewith. Receipts were checked by their source insofar as it was possible to do so and traced to the depository bank. The Treasurer's cash book balance was in agreement with the reconciled bank balance, as of June 30, 1943. (Exhibit B-1)

Comparative statements of Appropriations and Expenditures and Estimated and Actual Revenues are presented in Exhibits C and D. A revenue deficit of $82.66, and a net unexpended balance of appropriations of $43.26, resulted in a net budget deficit of $39.40.

The Treasurer's surety bond was examined as to form and amount. The insurance policies on the school buildings were also examined and are listed in Schedule F.

All records were complete and in good order. No discrepancies or irregularities were discovered.

Yours very truly,

HAROLD G. FOWLER,

REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

To the School Board of Allenstown:

In submitting his tenth annual report the Superintendent considers the employment and retention of qualified teachers the major problem determining the further maintenance of your public school. Statistics recently issued by the U. S. Office of Education show that in the nation at large twenty-eight thousand teaching positions have been abandoned. Approximately 200,000 teachers have left the profession since we entered the war in 1942.

In July your principal, Mrs. Edna P. Benware, was released to accept a similar position in the Lincoln Park School of Hooksett.

Miss Mary Patsourakos of Lowell, Massachusetts, was selected to succeed Mrs. Benware in the Allenstown Grammar School. Miss Patsourakos was graduated from Lowell Teachers College in 1935 and completed her third year of training at Boston University in 1940. Her teaching experience covers eight years in the American Hellenic School of Lowell.

Upon the resignation of Miss Janet Mitchell to accept a primary position in the Garrison School of Concord, Mrs. Helen E. King of Concord was elected primary teacher in Allenstown. Mrs. King was graduated in 1929 from the Concord Training School. She taught more than twelve years in the schools of Epsom, Canterbury, Henniker, and Pembroke.

Mrs. Martha F. Gale, Supervisor of Music, has been retained in the position that she has long and ably filled.

By contract with Pembroke the twelve pupils in your Seventh and Eighth Grades are admitted to the Suncook Grammar School for departmental instruction in domestic science, manual training, and physical education. This arrangement with Pembroke effects a saving of two hundred dollars for the services of part-time teachers formerly employed by Allenstown.

The September report of your Enumeration Officer gives 45 pupils enrolled in the public school. A total of 397 are reported in the parochial School. Two hundred ten of these parochial school children come from other towns. Six local children are attending elementary schools in other towns and 29 are enrolled in high school and academy. Thus a total of 267 resident children are accounted for in school.

Following is the annual report of the School Nurse, Miss Adonia A. Douillette, for the year ending last June.

Hot lunches are being prepared and served daily by Mrs. Bessie Morency to an average group of more than twenty children. A ten cent fee per pupil each day pays for the purchase of food. The cost of cooking and serving the lunches is paid from the special appropriation made by the district. The basement dining room, supplied with ample tables and chairs, open fireplace and radio, encourages sociability and refinement during the lunch hour. A teacher sits with the pupils at each table.

In November standardized achievement tests were given to all pupils in Grades Three, Four, and Five. Following are the average scores attained in terms of the Grade and Month:

This winter the defense industries of Suncook under the leadership of the American Rayon Corporation have thoroughly equipped and provided personnel for one of the most complete child care centers in our state. While the center is opened primarily for those children whose mothers are employed in defense industries, at the request of the officials of your defense plants, the center is under the supervision of the local public school authorities and receives no income from the federal government. The rooms have most ample facilities for a daytime enrollment of thirty children from the ages of two to five years. A fee of fifty cents a day is charged for food and laundry. At present the hours are from 7:15 in the morning until 5:30 in the afternoon. Immediate provision is being made for night service to accommodate mothers who are employed on the second and third shifts in industry.

The head teacher, Mrs. Lorna Crittenden, was graduated from Bates College in 1928, and from the Boston Nursery Training School in 1933. Mrs. Crittenden served one year in the Cooperative Nursery School in Groton, Massachusetts, and was connected for six years with the Nursery School, Wellesley College, Wellesley, Massachusetts. The personnel also includes two assistant teachers, a full-time registered nurse, a cook, and an assistant. The assistant speaks fluently both French and English.

In addition to efficient care the Center fosters in the child happy activity and individual and cooperative experiences on the level of childhood interests.

The average enrollment of Allentown pupils in high school and academy has fallen off nearly one-half within the last twelve months. Enlistment in the armed forces of our country, and more frequently the increasing opportunities for industrial employment have already reduced and may further cut down the number of your graduates who attend high school.

This lack of higher educational experience, the freedom to explore talents and interests, and the opportunity to choose and develop industrial skill bodes ill for the next generation.

May I quote in conclusion from the recent report of the Governor's Committee on Vocational Education.

"Our adult generation . . . must understand that democracy is dynamic and that life does not stand still. An educational offering that was appropriate for parents when they were young may not adequately serve the educational needs of their sons and daughters who are entering upon the duties of life a half century after their parents began their own schooling. Evidence sufficient is available to show that an education designed for one generation does not necessarily have within its scope all that is essential for the education of young people who are expected to adapt themselves to the changing life of their own later generation. The education of youth must be geared to the period in which youth is maturing."

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE H. HARMON,

Superintendent of Schools
